SHUFFLIN' ALONG FOUNDATION & PERFORMING ARTS SCHOLARSHIP FUND

Mission:

To provide financial assistance to recent high school graduates/incoming sophomore college students enabling them to pursue academic studies in the areas of dance, acting, singing, music and musical theatre at an accredited institution of higher learning within the United States of America.

History:

Shufflin' Along, L.L.C., owner/artistic director, Roshanda D. Spears saw a need to support the gifted and talented in the performing arts. As a dancer, actress and musician growing up in Los Angeles, CA., Ms. Spears recognizes that the performing arts are vital to us as a people. These art forms, no matter what language or cultural background barriers we have, is the glue that connects, educates, entertains and humanizes. Ms. Spears is a three time graduate of Grambling State University, a former Orchesis Dance Company member/assistant to the director, a member of Delta Sigma Theta Sorority, Inc., Regional Dance Fellowship recipient, Regional Juried Roster Artist, an award winning choreographer, an active member of various business, community/civic and arts related boards of directors and understands that, "art is life and life is art." Her commitment to education, community service and excellence is presented through the Shufflin' Along Foundation & Performing Arts Scholarship Fund.

Founded in 2012, the Shufflin' Along, Foundation & Performing Arts Scholarship Fund is a 501 (c) 3 charitable organization that was established to provide financial assistance to high school/incoming college sophomore students in the form of academic scholarships to attend/or whom is attending any accredited performing arts institution in the United States of America. Annual scholarships are provided to high school graduates/incoming sophomore students pursuing a career in the performing arts (dance, acting, singing, music and musical theatre).

SCHOLARSHIP INFORMATION:

Shufflin' Along Foundation will award the Shufflin' Along Foundation & Performing Arts Scholarship Fund to a deserving student enabling them to pursue or continue academic studies in the field of the performing arts (dance, acting, singing, music and musical theatre) at any accredited performing arts university in the United States of America.

The Shufflin' Along Foundation & Performing Arts Scholarship is a three-year award that provides a college scholarship up to $3,000 for three academic years for students pursuing a degree in any genre of the performing arts (dance, acting, singing, music and musical theatre) at any accredited performing arts university in the United States of America. The award will be distributed in three disbursements; three fall semesters, during three academic years. Only one application per student is required to cover the academic year. The student must maintain the standards of academic progress as defined by the Shufflin' Along Foundation & Performing Arts Scholarship Fund Committee. The scholarship will be awarded and made payable to the student if the student can provide a fee sheet from the registrar's office to verify enrollment. However, if the student needs the funds to enroll in school, the check will be made payable to the university in attendance.
